Ideestortepaper is a Sicilian publishing house. We like illustrated books and illustrations. We persist in our belief that books make the humans who read them better. We love the stories that call to us and the images that make them possible.

We are small but prolific. In 2025 we will publish 9 new authors: Giovanni Colaneri (Italy), Natalia Sergeeva (Russia), Gabriele Cracolici (Italy), Elena Pennelli (Italy), Cristina Perrotti (Italy), Rosa Chiara Scalici (Italy), Rosalba Corrao (Italy), Ana Elvia Núñez (Mexico), Valentina Mansone (Italy), Redmer Hoekstra (Nederland), Anna Sala (Italy).

News
2025

'Blue' is an intimate and visual journey through the kaleidoscope of human emotions. This book explores the resonance between images in which blue dominates as a symbolic hue, and words associated with universal feelings, memories and moments. Each page invites the reader to plunge into a world of sensations, where colour becomes a medium between personal memory and collective feeling.

Tredicino

Texts: Rosa Chiara Scalici Illustrations: Rosa Chiara Scalici

Story of cunning and rebellion. The last of thirteen children of a very poor family is transformed into a savior hero. If he were an archetype he would be a mixture of guardian angel and rebel. If he were a myth he would be the cunning Odysseus. In reality he is only Tredicino.

I had a hat

Texts: Valentina Mansone Illustrations: Rosalba Corrao

2025

A child receives a colourful hat as a gift from his parents. It is more than just an accessory: with that hat he feels invincible, ready to take on any adventure, whether in the park or at school. But one day, a thunderstorm tears it off and the wind carries it far away. The child looks for it everywhere, without success, until he finds it by chance, battered and unrecognisable. A poetic album about the ability to reinvent and transform loss into new possibilities, with a curious look towards the future.
